

The Power of the Letter to the Editor- Getting Started

1) Choose Your Local Paper:

- a. Letter to the editor word limit for your paper:

2) Develop your personal story.

- a. For example, you could write about your experience with expensive textbooks to show the need for a more affordable option.
- b. Draft your story here:

3) Brainstorm your call to action!

- a. Example: Call your legislator and urge them to support legislation this session that requires 15% of all Minnesota State courses to utilize textbooks costing $40 or less.

4) Start drafting your letter to the editor below!