Breakout Rooms (15 minutes)

1. Steering Committee, Alex Bender
 - a. The Steering Committee is focused on updating, maintaining, and curating our working documents, such as our bylaws and election policy. This committee will be reviewing these documents, suggesting changes, and seeking out ways to improve and expand the language LeadMN is built around. The expected workload of this committee will be dependent on the direction we receive from the Board as a whole but members can anticipate being asked to become deeply familiar with our working documents and be able to discuss them in detail so as to propose changes before the Board. This committee is likely to meet on a biweekly basis to start as we assess our current bylaws, previous versions of them, and determine areas of focus for the rest of the year. The pace of the committee may be subject to change though it is unlikely we will meet less often than once a month.

2. Advocacy Committee, Sudi Adow

- a. What it is?: The Advocacy Committee is the driving force behind LeadMN's efforts to elevate student voices at the campus, state, and federal levels.

What work will be done?: This committee shapes LeadMN's annual legislative agenda, responds to critical policy issues through Calls to Action, and plans major events such as Advocacy Day and the D.C. Summit. Members engage in hands-on work including storytelling, research, and organizing, focusing on pivotal issues like college affordability, basic needs, and academic equity.

Is it for you?: Ideal for students passionate about turning their experiences into powerful advocacy, this committee provides the tools and platform to influence decision-makers and drive tangible change for all Minnesota students.
